Schoolreaders

improving literacy • increasing life chances

Featured stories from Storytime this week include a story about friendship and common ground, a tale about a snake in school, and the adventures of Humpty Dumpty after the fall.

Storytime Spring term, Week 5

‘The Spots and the Dots’ written and narrated by Helen Baugh (Reading Age 5+)

This story includes a Drawing masterclass with the Illustrator, Marion Deuchars where you can learn how to draw the characters (lesson starts at 6 minutes 52 seconds)

The Spots live on one side of the hill. The Dots live on the other. Both are fearful and suspicious of the other, but are they really all that different? When a young Spot and a young Dot meet at the top of the hill, they are about to find out...

‘There’s a Snake in My School’ by David Walliams (reading age 5+)

Miranda loves to be different, and on Bring-your-pet-to-school Day she introduces everyone to her very DIFFERENT pet... Penelope the snake. Miss Bloat the headmistress doesn’t think snakes should be allowed in school. But Penelope has other ideas...

‘After the Fall’ written and narrated by Dan Santat (Reading Age 6+)

After the fall, Humpty Dumpty is a broken egg. Life is tough: he's so afraid of heights, he can't even bear to climb onto his bed, or reach his favourite cereal on the top shelf at the supermarket. But one day, fuelled by his passion for bird-watching, he decides to conquer his fears and something amazing happens...
